

EMA Newsletter - July 2020

View this email in your browser

Newsletter - July, 2020

EnhanceMicroAlgae continues to work towards facilitating information and knowledge transfer among players in the microalgae sector whilst keeping in line with the evolving Covid-19 safety guidelines and regulations.
We hope you are keeping safe.

Download our latest Newsletter here and read about our project outputs and publications.

Inside this Issue:

- Read about the first EMA webinar, held on July 16, 2020, and find all presentation materials.
- Full list of EMA publications.
 - Latest: 3D Printed functional cookies fortified with Arthorspira platensis - Evaluation of its antioxidant potential and physical chemical characterization. Published in Food Hydrocolloids.
 - Latest: Printability, microstructure, and flow dynamics of phase separated edible 3D inks. Published in Food Hydrocolloids.
 - Latest: Updated UPLC DAD MS/MS pigment composition of Tisochrysis lutea and purification of fucoxanthin using centrifugal partition chromatography for the chemosensitization of melanoma cells. Accepted in Algal Research.
- Upcoming conferences and workshops relevant to the microalgae sector.

News at a glance

The EnhanceMicroAlgae team at the University of Manchester greatly appreciates all the attendees who participated in the webinar held last July 16, 2020.

On behalf of all partners and featured speakers, thank you!

