

View this email in your browser

Newsletter - September, 2020

EnhanceMicroAlgae continues to work towards facilitating information and knowledge transfer among players in the microalgae sector whilst keeping in line with the evolving Covid-19 safety guidelines and regulations.
We hope you are keeping safe.

Download our latest Newsletter here and read about our project outputs and publications.

Inside this Issue:

- Read about Hijos de Rivera (Estrella Galicia), one of the EMA associated partners.
- Full list of EMA publications.
 - Latest: Updated UPLC DAD MS/MS pigment composition of Tisochrysis lutea and purification of fucoxanthin using centrifugal partition chromatography for the chemosensitization of melanoma cells. Published in Algal Research.
 - Latest: Models of microalgal cultivation for added-value products - A review. Published in Biotechnology Advances.
- Upcoming conferences and workshops relevant to the microalgae sector.

Stakeholders Database

The EMA database of stakeholders is now available: an easily accessible, visual, and open access database bringing together all the European Atlantic Area players working in the microalgae sector.
The database is receiving continuous updates so make sure to visit the page!

EnhanceMicroAlgae MarketPlace

The EMA virtual marketplace is already running! A platform for the exchange of services and interests, to boost business development of the microalgae sector in the

Feedback

